

CAITLIN KELLY

222 Martling Avenue 6G
Tarrytown, NY 10591
caitlinkelly.com
914-332-6065

Summary: Award-winning veteran reporter, feature writer and editor: NY Daily News, Montreal Gazette, Globe and Mail. Canadian National Magazine Award winner, non-fiction author. Fluent French, good Spanish.

2006 -2008 Freelance Writer The New York Times, Chatelaine, Boys' Life, Creative Living, RiseUp, Westchester Cottages and Gardens, Westchester Magazine, Syracuse University. Edited 100+ business profiles for Inc.com 5,000. Board member of 1.267-member American Association of Journalists and Authors. Planned, organized and moderated a four-person panel of New York Times editors; 55 attended, one of whom made first NYT sales six weeks later.

2005-2006 Daily News New York, NY.
Staff reporter/feature writer. Produced 68 news and feature stories, many self-generated.

- first to write about the new life, work and relationships of former N.J. governor Jim McGreevey. Front page
- first to focus on the 6,000 immigrant children detained annually, invisibly and with no legal right to counsel, by DHS
- first to investigate lack of security in the cruise ship industry

2002-2004 Author "Blown Away: American Women and Guns," Pocket Books, 2004. Bought by 591 libraries worldwide, including Yale, Yale Law School, Harvard, Princeton and Federal Law Enforcement Training Center. "Invaluable," said Booklist.
Freelance: The New York Times, The New York Post, Hartford Courant, Dallas Morning News, More, Chatelaine (Canada's largest women's magazine, circ. 1 million.)

1996-2002

Freelance Writer on sports, business, real estate, culture: The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Washington Post, Penthouse, Glamour, BusinessWeek, Town & Country, Family Circle, Ottawa Citizen.

- reported/wrote first story on DNA testing of 9/11 victims, 1500 words in 12 hours; sold to VSD, French newsweekly; London Sunday Telegraph and New Zealand Herald
- wrote 2,500-word sports story, reported from Minneapolis, in two days for Gruner & Jahr custom publishing
- monthly contributor to Ottawa Citizen

Internet: Contributing editor, quokka.com, sports website.

Magazine Editing

1996

Senior Editor Worldbusiness, New York, NY

Planned, assigned, wrote and edited six 1,500-word features per issue for international bimonthly business magazine.

1995

Editor in Chief Forecast, New York, NY

Edited 48-page national business magazine.

1990-92

Senior Editor World Press Review, NY

edited 10,000+ words monthly from international press in French and Spanish. Planned covers and editorial packages.

A few personal details:

Co-ed softball player

Professional photography at 6thfloorpix.com

Former nationally ranked saber fencer

Trustee: Writers Emergency Assistance Fund